HERD MANAGEMENT

HerdMetrix, as part of SmartDairy, provides you with the total-cow picture you need to make fast and effective management decisions.

HerdMetrix interfaces with all major herd management software programs, ensuring herd data is available whenever you need it.

SmartDairy® HerdMetrix™ will help you make the right management decision – quickly and efficiently.

- Interfaces – Data works with all other major herd management software, mimics the same reports
- User-friendly – Easily record health events, breedings, and treatments, automatically schedule recurring management protocols, and track parlor performance and efficiency
- Complete visibility – Animal records gives individual cow issues and attentions at a glance
- Customizable – With Report Writer, customize herd reports to focus on what information matters most to you
- Mobile App – An improvement over most software that still run on a PDA, works well with BouMatic RealTime or HeatSeeker tags as well as other ID and Activity systems
- Remote support – Technical support is available to connect to your SmartDairy, diving right in to help you understand features better or to solve an issue
